

Big Green Legacy – Lesson 1 – What is Legacy? - Quotes

"Youth is the real wealth, and it is the nation's shield and sword that protects it from ambitions of the greedy."

"History is a continuous change of events. The present is only an extension of the past."

"On land and in the sea, our forefather lived and survived in this environment. They were only able to do so because they recognise the need to conserve it, to take from it only what they needed to live and to preserve it for succeeding generations."

"Our expectations from our youth are different from our expectations from others. We aspired for them to provide great achievements and service to the nation; to help create a modern state and a contemporary country."

"Our ancestors left us a legacy of traditions we are proud of. Our mission to maintain and develop them as assets of the nation for future generations."

"Youth is the real wealth, and it is the nation's shield and sword that protects it from ambitions of the greedy."

"History is a continuous change of events. The present is only an extension of the past."

"On land and in the sea, our forefather lived and survived in this environment. They were only able to do so because they recognise the need to conserve it, to take from it only what they needed to live and to preserve it for succeeding generations."

"Our expectations from our youth are different from our expectations from others. We aspired for them to provide great achievements and service to the nation; to help create a modern state and a contemporary country."

"Our ancestors left us a legacy of traditions we are proud of. Our mission to maintain and develop them as assets of the nation for future generations."

Big Green Legacy – Lesson 1 – What is Legacy? - Quotes

Importance of Sheikh Zayed's work (legacy):

Sheikh Zayed's legacy impacts the world in many important ways. He worked hard to protect the environment and save endangered animals, setting a great example for other countries. He valued and preserved his culture, promoting understanding and peace among different people. His generosity in helping those in need has inspired many to the same. As a leader, he transformed the UAE into a successful and modern nation, showing how good leadership can make a big difference. His focus on education and peace has helped many people around the world and continues to influence our lives today.